- A "Search" input field and a "Help" button.
- A row of navigation buttons: "Top", "Prev", "Next", "Bottom", "Add", "Edit", "Delete", and "Exit".

Although, we have provided data of around 3700 cities from all over the world, there might be cases when you find that a particular city (for which you need to generate horoscope) is not available in the City Master. In such cases, you have two options:

- If you know the latitude and longitude of the city, you can use this option to add this city to City Master
- If you do not know the latitude and longitude of the city, you can use the option Extended City Master to search and export the details of city to the city master.

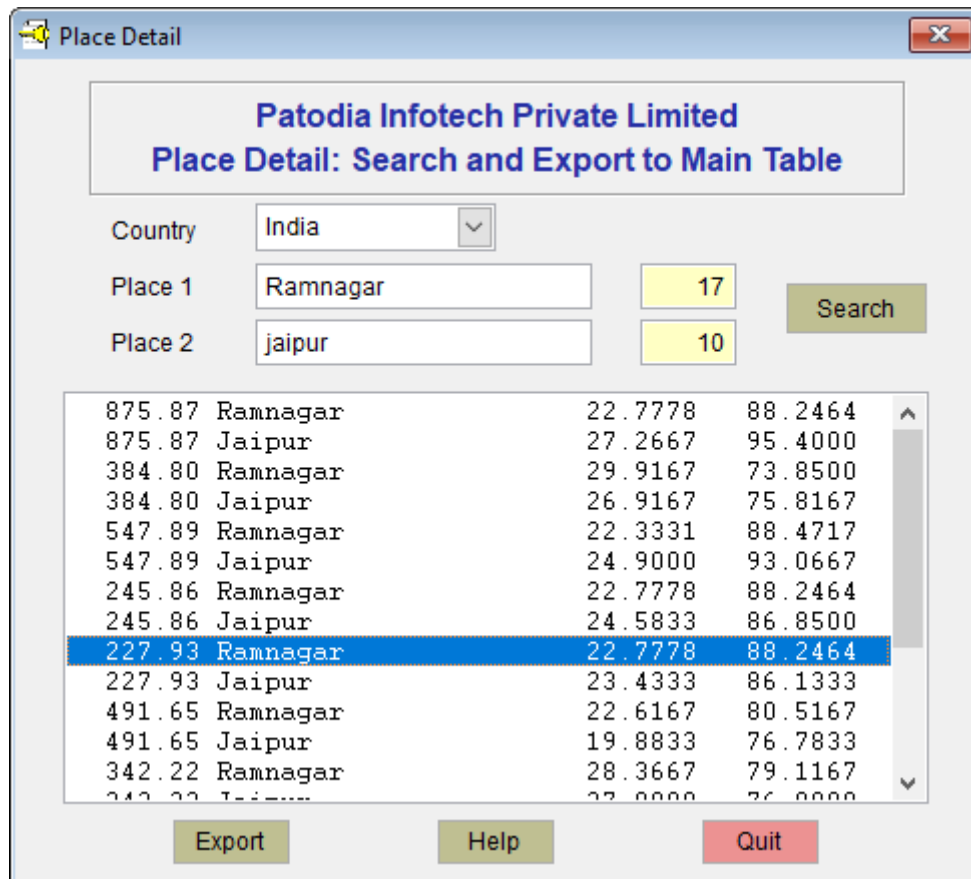

Though care has been taken to put correct latitude and longitude, there might be some mistakes. You can use this option to rectify such mistakes also.

Extended City Master

This is a unique option where you have facility to search more than 2,40,000 cities from fifteen different countries. This option allows you to search Extended City Master for a city which is not available in the City Master and then export the details of this city to the City Master.

In some cases, you may find that when you search for a particular city, you may get a list several cities with the same name. In such cases, you do not know which city you are really looking for. For this purpose, we have provided to enter one more city (second city) name. You should enter the second city, which is well known and near to this city. When you click on search button after entering second city, hopefully you will see only one pair of city one of which is the city you are looking for and another is well known city. If you find that still there are many pairs listed, then you should see the distance, which is listed at the beginning of each record. We explain this by taking an example:

Suppose, we want to search the place: “Ramnagar”. When we search for this place, we get a list of 17 places. Now, we do not know which Ramnagar, we are really looking for. Suppose, the well know place near to this place is Jaipur. So, we enter the second place Jaipur and then once again we search for. This time, we get list of 10 pair of cities. The minimum distance found is 227.93 km. The latitude and longitude of “Ramnagar” for which arial distance is around 228 km is 23.43 and 86.13 respectively. So, we can click on this city to select it and then click on Export to export this to the Main City Master.

Important Note: Please note that when you select city while entering data for generating horoscope, you can select the city form City Master only (and not from the Extended City Master). Extended City Master can be used only to export the required city details to Main City Master so that next time you want to enter this city for generating horoscope, you can do so.

Time Zone Master

When we enter details of a person to generate the horoscope, we also need to enter the time zone of the place in which the person is born. This option allows you to add new Time Zone as per your requirement. You are also allowed to modify or delete an existing Time Zone using this option. It might be noted that we have created all the time zones available at the time of creation of this software (March 2009).

Find Date from Horoscope

This is a unique option provided by us to find Date from Horoscope. There might be cases when you are having a horoscope but the birth details are not available. This option allows you to find the date from horoscope. Please note that here horoscope means Janma Kundali wherein you know the Rasi of all the planets but not the exact value (Say, you know the Rasi of Sun but not the degree and minutes). This option will help you in find the date of birth in such case with +/- one day difference. As the fastest moving planet Moon remains in a Rasi for an approximate period of 2.25 days, finding exact date just from the Rasi of planets is an impossible task. For this purpose, we have provided an option to enter Rasi of Moon in Navamsa (if Navamsa Chart is given). This enables to find the Date and Time with accuracy of +/- 3 hours.

Please note that Rasi means the Rasi Number. For example, for Mesha (or Aries), the number should be entered as 1. In similar way, we need to enter the Rasi Numbers of all the planets to find the date of horoscope. Below, we show sample screen:

For example, suppose you want to know when Sun will reach to exact 270 degree longitude (There will be Makara Sakranti at that moment, this means at that point of time the Sun will move from Sagittarius to Capricorn sign). We are using highly optimized search engine so that it locates the planet very fast. It does not do linear search. What we meant is it does not compute position of planets for every day and then try to locate the date and time when a particular planet reach to a particular longitude. It may also be noted that we are not storing planetary position in a table and search that. Searching in this way can be very fast but the disadvantage is we cannot store planetary position for thousands of years as it may occupy a very large space of your hard disk.

The search engine may fail in some circumstances. It generally fails either when you are searching a value, which does not happen in next few years or this value is close to stationery position of that planet. Search engine more commonly fails when you search for longitude of Uranus, Neptune or Pluto. However, it may occasionally fail even when you are searching for Saturn, Jupiter or Mars. The failure of search engine in case of Bhavas, Sun, Moon, Mercury or Venus is remote.

Whenever search engine fails, you need to search the value with some other date which is nearer to date when the planet is going to reach that longitude.

Data to be entered:

- From Date: Date from search to be initiated
- House: You can select either Vedic or Placidus House.
- Ayanamsa: There are four choices available for Ayanamsa: Lahiri, KP, Raman and Zero. You can select the required from list.
- Time Zone: Select time zone of the country in which the person born. It is very important to enter the correct time zone because the accuracy of the computation depends on the correct time zone. To define a new time zone, please use the Menu Item 'Time Zone Master'.
- Place: Select the place from the list. If the place you are looking for is not listed, please use option 'City Master Maintenance' to enter that place. If you do not know the latitude and longitude of the place then you can use 'extended city master' to select and export this city to City Master. Once you enter the place, Latitude and Longitude are displayed automatically.
- Planet / Bhava: Select the Planet (Sun, Moon etc.) or Bhava (Lagna, Second, Third etc) from the list which you would like to search.
- Longitude: Enter the longitude of the Planet or Bhava in degree, minute and seconds. Search engine will find the date and time at which the given Planet or Bhava reaches to this longitude.

After entering all the above value, click the button Search to find the date and time.

Compute Planetary and Bhava Position

This option enables to compute Planetary and Bhava position for given date and time.

The definition of Sun rise and Sun set are as under as per Indian Astrology and Astronomy:

- Sunrise: Sunrise is the instant at which the lower edge of the Sun appears above the horizon in the east.

- Sunset: the time of sunset is defined as the moment the trailing edge of the sun's disk disappears below the horizon in the west.

Generally, Sunrise and Sunset takes around 3 to 4 minutes (time taken for appearance from lower edge to upper edge for Sunrise and vice versa in case of Sunset). So, if you find difference in Sunrise or Sunset of 1.5 minutes to 2 minutes, the timings are given probable for middle edge of Sunrise (or Sunset). If you find difference of 3 to 4 minutes, the timings are probably given for Sunrise or Sunset for upper edge.

Compute Time from Ghati Pal

In certain cases, you find that for old horoscopes, the time is given in Ghati Pal instead of hours and minutes. As the software accepts time in hours and minutes only, we have provided this option to convert ghati and pal to hours and minutes. Once you enter the date, select correct time zone (IST for India) and choose the place, you need to give the Ghati and Pal, which you want to convert into hours and minutes. This screen computes and gives the time in hours and minutes. This time can be used for generating the horoscope.

The screenshot shows a software window titled "Computation of Time from Ghati Pal". The window contains the following fields and controls:

Kranti Samya

Kranti Samya means the time when Declination of Sun and Moon is same. The user should enter the year for which Kranti Samya to be computed.

As per Muhurtha, this is one of the Serious Dosha and mainly considered for Marriage Muhurtha. We give starting, middle and ending time of Kranti Samya. In the screen given below, the first Kranti Samya, middle time is 09.01.2020 06:34:44. If we compute Declination of Sun and Moon, we get Declination of the Sun = -22 11 53.2 and Declination of the Moon = +22 11 53.2. It should be noted that value of Declination of the Sun and the Moon is same, but the sign is different.

For 21.01.2020 03:11:11 AM, the Declination of the Sun is -20 05 11.5 and the Moon is -20 05 11.5. Here both the values are exactly same.
